Gentlemen

I have three twenty dollar gold pieces dated 1907 uncirculated one of them a St Gaudens piece which I am compelled to part with and I am willing to sell you these at $20.00 each total $60⁰⁰ on each of these is engraved the words "In God We Trust" which was engraved when Congress passed the law ordering these words put on all our coins (I believe in 1908) and so far as I know they are the only coins of this denomination and date (1907) so marked. My object in making you this offer is to preserve these coins and to have them kept on exhibition where they would be safe and accessible. If you can use them at above price please let me know by return mail and I will bring them up to you. awaiting your kind and prompt reply I remain

Respectfully

Dear Sir:

Replying to your favour of March 9th, I would be glad to see the Twenty-dollar gold pieces about which you write. You could bring them to our Museum here between 10 and 12, or 2 and five o'clock any day this week or next week except Thursdays.

Very truly yours,

Curator

P.S. I would suggest your telephoning for an appointment before coming, to insure my being here.
